

TROOP 4 POLICY on CONDUCT, WAIVER & CONSENT

CONDUCT

It is the policy of Troop 4 and the Boy Scouts of America that all scouting activities are conducted in a safe and wholesome environment. The troop committee expects that all activities take place in the spirit of the Scout Oath and the Scout Law. However, it is recognized there will be times when exceptions to this proper behavior will occur. Therefore, the consequence of misbehavior and rule noncompliance must be clearly communicated to all scouts, parents and adult leaders. The following Rules of Conduct are to be observed by all scouts and adult leaders.

The following actions are specifically prohibited within Troop 4:

- Hazing, inappropriate language and/or verbal abuse
- Unsafe use of fire or pyrotechnics
- Rock throwing that might injure
- Excessive boisterousness disturbing the enjoyment of the outdoors by others
- Transportation or consumption of alcohol at any function involving scouts
- The possession or use of illegal drugs
- Assault, or the threat of force or violence directed toward any scouts or adult leader
- Stealing or destruction of property
- Open and persistent defiance of authority

CONSEQUENCE OF UNACCEPTABLE BEHAVIOR

Disregard for these rules or other misbehavior may result in one or more of the following consequences:

1. Verbal warning.
2. "Time out" from activities.
3. Parent communication.
4. Parents asked to pick-up the scout from the camp outing AT PARENTS' EXPENSE.
5. Board of Review

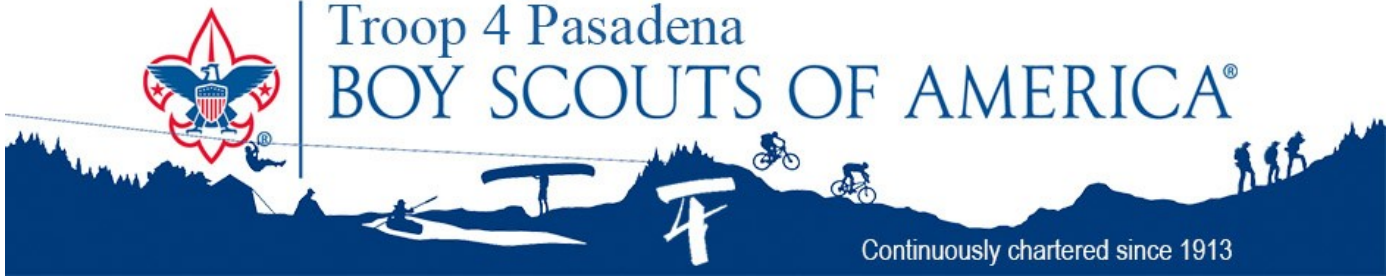

WAIVER OF LIABILITY AND DISCLAIMER

I / We the parent(s) or legal guardian(s) of the named Scout below acknowledge that participation in scouting events necessarily involves risk of physical injury. I / We further acknowledge that the program of Troop 4 is administered by volunteers, including volunteering parents, and not by paid professionals.

In order for Troop 4 to accept the registration of the named Scout and to permit voluntary participation of the Scout in its programs, I / We hereby release, discharge and hold harmless Troop 4, its leaders and participating volunteers from any claims arising out of or relating to any physical injury that may result to the participant while participating in Troop 4, sponsored events, including any physical injury caused by the negligence of any leader or participating volunteer while participating in any Troop 4 sponsored event.
